COMES NOW Michael C. 2. The defendant shall provide the probation office with access to any requested financial information.
3. The defendant shall pay a special assessment in the amount of $300.00

Matthew Alwan Shelton was released from custody on November 4, 2011, at which time the term of supervised release commenced in the Eastern District of New York.

RESPECTFULLY PRESENTING PETITION FOR ACTION OF COURT FOR CAUSE AS FOLLOWS:

Mr. Shelton has been offered numerous vocational training programs and employment workshops while being supervised in the Eastern District of New York. These programs have been free of charge or paid for by other sources. He has failed to complete several of the programs but to his credit he has earned a certification in basic carpentry, plumbing, and electrical wiring. Mr. Shelton has informed the probation officer that he prefers to obtain money through public assistance benefits rather than seeking employment. The probation officer in the Eastern District of New York, Jaquita Mitchell, has requested that Mr. Shelton complete 20 hours of community service per week during any period of time that he does not maintain full time employment, or is involved in a full-time job training or vocational program, or a combination of both, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant signed a Waiver of Hearing agreeing to the proposed modification of supervision.
